ANNOUNCING

Chair of Epidemiology Travel Awards

What?
Travel awards are matching funds up to $500 for travel-related expenses. The Chair will match any funds provided by the research mentor for travel, up to $500. A student may be awarded the Chair’s Travel Award up to three times per year.

Who?
PhD students enrolled in Epidemiology who are presenting a poster or paper at a conference/meeting, or who are attending a formal workshop, are eligible to apply. The activity must be related to the student’s career development.

Student must: 1) be in good academic standing, 2) receive funds from their mentor(s), 3) have asked the Graduate School for funds, and 4) have attended Epidemiology Seminars regularly throughout the year.

How to apply?
After official notification of acceptance of abstract/workshop enrollment, student must submit the following documents:

1) Application form, co-signed by student and mentor(s)
2) Notification of acceptance of abstract/workshop enrollment
3) Estimated expenses

Submit to:
Epidemiology Academic Program Assistant, Abigail Hummel
abihummel@ufl.edu, CTRB 4236

How to be reimbursed?
Student will be reimbursed after travel. Turn in all receipts for reimbursements with summary page of expenses, along with all funders of the trip. All documentation must be received within 30 days of travel.
